

Attendance Policy and Agreement

All singers should plan to attend every rehearsal, arriving on time and staying for the duration. Even singers who are mildly ill are encouraged to come and listen so they can keep up with instruction. That being said, we know there may be times when an absence is unavoidable. Therefore, we have developed the following policy:

Singers may miss one rehearsal with no consequences. After two missed rehearsals (regardless of whether they are back to back), members should be prepared to sing their part of a specified piece for Mr. Crone and/or Mr. Wing during the next rehearsal. It is expected the singer will have done whatever work necessary to remain at the same level as others on their part. If they are not able to perform at that level, the singer may, at the discretion of the Music Director, be asked to leave the choir for the remainder of the season and re-audition at the next audition time.

There are several ways a singer may make up missed instruction. They can work alone on a piano, work with an outside voice teacher, or call another Jubilate singer on their part to help them make up what they've missed. At any time, they can also contact Emily Thompson (emilyrosethompson@gmail.com/845-988-7244) to inquire as to the content of the missed rehearsals and/or to request take-home music.

None of the above applies to dress rehearsals or performances, as they are mandatory for all singers!

Note: Upcoming absences should be communicated to Emily Thompson via emilyrosethompson@gmail.com immediately upon discovery. Last minute (same day) absences should be communicated to Emily Thompson by PHONE (at 988-7244) before 4:00 on the day of the rehearsal. An email will not communicate your last minute absence in a timely manner.

(Detach and submit this portion with your signatures.)
