

Packed House for Cabaret Benefit

A dreary, rainy June evening in Warwick was transformed into a magical, musical journey. The eagerly-anticipated Cabaret Crossing at Stonebridge Station was a cozy, personal introduction to cabaret for many, and the packed house was ready to reminisce. NYC cabaret performers (pictured center) Jenna Esposito, Jeanne MacDonald and Brian Gens had the crowd swinging one minute and misty-eyed the next. Other musicians (pictured back row, left-to-right) were David Crone, piano; Fortune Esposito, guitar; and Steven Wing, piano. Cabaret Crossing was a benefit for Jubilate-Community Youth Choir of Warwick (several members also pictured). Jubilate's next benefit is A Voice Raising on October 24.
